

Praise for Tash's last book Challenge the Wind

EPPIE Award - Best Historical Novel
The National Writers Association - Florida
Panhandle Professional Writers - Texas
CNW/FFWA - Florida State Writers
American Pen Women - San Francisco

"With the right balance of history, action and love, Challenge the Wind is a book to be remembered. I recommend this artfully written novel to anyone, especially history buffs."

— Cynthia Ward, Reviewer, eBook Reviews Weekly

"...A powerful American Revolutionary War tale that dispenses a deep look at the impact of war on a family and those who come into their circle. The novel captures the souls of the audience through its powerful characterizations."—Harriet Klausner, #1 Reviewer Amazon.com

"The plot is complicated and swift. The fast pace is fun to read and makes a lively tale...be sure CHALLENGE THE WIND is on your to-be-read list.

—Brenda Ramsbacher, Scribblers, RIO Member President, Reviewers International Organization

Last Call America

Last call before the darkness falls

by Debra Tash

from Long Canyon Press

TO BE RELEASED MID-SEPTEMBER 2018

In a devastated America, life has become brutal for the citizens who are living under martial law. The government has been dismantled and now run by Homeland Security including the entire military. American citizens are being herded into the major cities, stripped of their rights and forced to work in factories according to their school test results – no free will.

An unlikely pair forges an uneasy bond, first out of necessity then out of a drive to win back all that has been lost.

On a cold New England morning, Captain Jason Poole only wanted a hot cup of coffee. Rebecca Sanders just wanted the armed officer to leave the diner she and her sister ran. She wouldn't get Poole out of her diner easily and the Captain had won himself more than a cup of coffee that day.

Together they would struggle to lead a nation into revolution before the last call sounded and darkness fell.

Last Call America is a driven dystopian story that might be too close to home for some readers. A powerful story that touches on current political themes that digs into American values and the price we are willing to pay to keep them.

FACTS ABOUT:

Last Call America

Author: Debra Tash
Publisher: Long Canyon Press
Release Date: September 2018
ISBN: 978-0-9975926-6-5 Paperback Edition
ISBN: 978-0-9975926-2-7 ebook
Page Count: 316 pages
Paperback Retail Price: $14.95
Ebook retail: $3 .99
Available in .epub, and .mobi ebook formats

MEDIA KIT

Reviewers email:
Kathleen@KathleenKaiser.com
to receive an ebook for review

Author Bio

A native Angeleno, Debra Tash is an award-winning American author, journalist, and accomplished speaker. Her books have won multiple awards including her last book Challenge the Wind

She lectures for such organizations as the DAR, The American Association of University Women, the Southern California Federated Women's Club and served as a panelist at the Historical Novel Society's North American Conference.

Inspiration finds Debra through current and past events, where she focuses on positive morals and uplifting themes. Her most recent book "Last Call America" is set in the not so distant future and takes the current American political climate to a chilling collusion.

Debra currently serves as Editor in Chief of Citizens Journal, an online news site that covers current and breaking news in the Ventura and Los Angeles County.

Debra resides in Ventura County where she is a mother and activist who is passionate about literacy and education for children.

Follow Debra's blog
<http://www.DebraTash.com>